All,

Senior Tax CPA for Small Firm – Work-Life Balance, $60k-$100k (DOE)

Are you looking for an alternative to a larger public accounting firm? Do you want to work for a firm that will allow you great benefits and opportunities but that will also allow you to maintain work-life balance?

Veta & Associates, a small accounting firm with over 30 years of tax experience serving businesses and individuals is looking for a Senior Tax CPA who will fill a key role within their team. The firm specializes in tax compliance, tax consulting, tax planning, defending taxpayers against the IRS, QuickBooks consulting, general business consulting, and general bookkeeping.

The firm offers a casual business environment and has a lighthearted and enjoyable culture that highly values excellent customer service. We require that you only charge 1500 charge hours a year. So although we work hard during tax season, this is a place where you can enjoy a flexible schedule for most of the year.

Traits of the ideal candidate include:

- 7+ years as a CPA and extensive experience in tax preparation and review
- Desire and ability to network and market new business
- Flexible, team player
- Great communication skills
- Quickbooks Proficient
- Software & Tech Savvy (ability to work with a variety of tax software highly useful)
- Upbeat Personality
- Customer Service Oriented

Benefits:

- Employee health coverage is paid at 100%, including spousal coverage
- 401(k) with 100% employer match
- Paid Time Off
- Minimal to no travel
- Pay is $60k - $100k (depends on experience); negotiable for right candidate and for those bring a book of business
